

About Wayne Ulanski Prolific Songwriter

A lyricist at heart, Wayne has been writing songs for his entire life. The scope of his work is from rock to ballads to pop with the idea of creating strong melodies, vocal harmonies and lyrics that reflect his views of writing and communicating messages of love, joy, fun and even protest.

To showcase his work, he has posted his catalog of albums on the Reverb Nation (website)

The site has categorized his styles and includes Pop, Ballads, Rock, and his new album, "Stratosphere".

"I am a songwriter with well over 400 songs in my discography. I am seeking a path to reaching artists and decision makers who can record and release some of my work. I have 15+ albums posted on my ReverbNation page

"I am particularly proud of my lyrics, storytelling and melodies. My influences include Motown, Hall & Oates, Steely Dan, Eagles, James Taylor etc. I am also an advocate for bringing back quality music and production with harmonies, melodies and dynamic arrangements."

Wayne performs regularly with his band, Brown The CousCous

Some of the many positive comments about his songwriting

"Wayne uses lyrical imagery to create stories about universal things in a unique way." RS, Temecula, CA

"You get caught up in his stories and discover a foundation of some very cool music from a very talented group." LL, New Jersey

"Turn it on and enjoy a relaxing evening. " MR, Indiana

"Wow! I didn't realize how much I missed having a cool soundtrack to help get me through the day." MS, Florida

"Easy to listen to. Hard to forget." BK, New York

"Wayne is a serious artist. I've said that from the start. But now he has risen to a whole new level of musicianship and performance. And what a thrill to witness that." - CA, Vocal Arranger/Vocalist

"Kenny Rankin meets Stephen Bishop meets Steely Dan meets Jimmy Buffet." - JB

"The songs are as light and bubbly as champagne on the high seas, yet oddly complex and intellectual." MD, Long Beach

"Soul-inflected ultra-smooth rock with unabashed sun-drenched soaring vocals and harmonies." RS, California
